

How do I become a Covenant Club member?

Our Covenant Club is composed of individuals who have made an outright or planned gift to the Covenant to Care for Children's Endowment Fund in one of the following ways:*

An outright gift of cash - In this way, each member assures the future of Connecticut's most at-risk children.

An outright gift of appreciated assets - This is when you contribute such items as stock or property owned for longer than one year

A life insurance gift - Naming CCC as a beneficiary of your insurance policy creates the possibility of a large future gift.

A gift through your will - You may wish to consider including CCC in your will or living trust. This allows you to set aside a fixed amount, specific asset or percentage of your estate as a bequest.

A gift made through a charitable trust or annuity - Creating a charitable trust or annuity provides life income for yourself and/or others, with your gift eventually directed to CCC.

*Your financial advisor can explain the possible tax benefits for each of these types of gifts.

The good you do every day is an example to others; your values and the life lessons you share all touch the people with whom you come in contact.

What if that example could continue on forever?

Becoming a member of Covenant Club is a powerful tool to assure the work of Covenant to Care for Children continues until all Connecticut's children have caring families and safe places to live and all caring and faithful people demonstrate their own personal commitment to the welfare of children. Your membership becomes the channel for more good than we could ever do in our lifetimes. For more than two decades, CCC has committed to serving the children of Connecticut through the actions of caring and faithful people. We have literally created positive change in the lives of many thousands of children.

We are responsive to needs, motivated by faith, respectful of human dignity, child-centered and caring toward all. We know you share these values with CCC.

With your help, we can bring hope and possibilities to all of the children of Connecticut. That is the purpose of the Covenant Club, so that the good you do lives on forever.

CCC is committed to mobilizing and channeling the generosity of caring and faithful people to advocate for, mentor, and provide direct assistance to neglected, abused and at-risk children and youth in Connecticut. One of the best means of realizing this commitment is made possible by the members of the Covenant Club.

CCC is not part of a national conglomerate but rather an independent 501(c)3 nonprofit. We make decisions based on our local community needs. This means your gift will go directly into your community, your neighborhood, families you may know will receive the benefits of your choice today and in the years to follow.

Why should I give?

There are as many reasons for giving as there are members of the Covenant Club but the best and most common may be "Just because it feels good."

How do I determine the best method of giving?

Consult your own legal and/or financial advisors. Covenant to Care for Children will be happy to assist you, as part of your team, in selecting a gift opportunity that best expresses your generosity.
