Ms. Hallberg,

My name is Janet O. Stallworth, treatment Social Worker at the Danbury Area Office. I have been the liaison for Prince of Peace Church in Bloomfield, CT since February 2007. I have had the pleasure to work with Laura Duffy (ex DCF employee) up until August and am now working with Jocelyn Fillian. It has been a pleasure to be the liaison for such a caring and giving congregation. Both ladies have gone beyond to assist me in obtaining Easter supplies, school supplies (backpacks, notebooks, pencils, etc) Birthday gifts, furniture (dinette sets, beds, futons, etc)and recently filled 13 baskets with a full Thanksgiving dinner for my clients. The turn around time when items are requested is almost immediately. I have given two of the families who donated furniture my business card and have contacted me directly when they had other items for grab. This has helped one specific family tremendously when they did not have beds or a kitchen set. I had the pleasure of helping her out and see her smile on her face when I delivered the items. These items were brand new to her.

Meral Prewitt, Regional Coordinator, has been amazing as well. Ms. Prewitt has been on top of communicating with the liaison, involving us with in meetings, giving us updates, informing us of up coming events, etc. She has been very helpful and hope we continue to keep the Adopt A Social Worker Program funded.

Thanks You,

Janet O. Stallworth, SW
